

Hiking Trails of Indian Well S.P. and Tahmore Conservation Area. (2020)

Trails are maintained by volunteers with the Connecticut Forest and Park Association (CFPA) with support from the Shelton Land Conservation Trust (sheltonlandtrust.org) and Shelton Trails Committee (sheltonconservation.org/trails).

The blue-blazed Paugussett Trail was created in the 1930s and is thirteen miles long, stretching from Buddington Road in Shelton to East Village Road in Monroe. Information about CFPA's 825-mile Blue-Blazed Hiking Trail system may be found at ctwoodlands.org.

TRAIL BLAZE

RIGHT TURN

LEFT TURN

Trails maintained by volunteers. Please carry out what you carry in, keep dogs under control, and respect the peace and quiet for other hikers.